

Dr. Andreas Görgen
Chief Operating Officer (COO)

Professional career

|                |                                                                                                                                          |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| since May 2026 | Chief Operating Officer (COO) of TKMS                                                                                                    |
| 2025-2026      | Member of the Supervisory Board of TKMS                                                                                                  |
| 2025-2026      | Innovation Advisor at SPRIND GmbH                                                                                                        |
| 2022-2025      | Secretary General, Federal Commissioner of Culture and Media,Advisor to the Chancellor for Culture and Media,Federal Chancellery |
| 2014-2021      | Director General for Culture and Communication,Ministry of Foreign Affairs                                                           |
| 2011-2014      | Siemens Energy Sector Cluster Lead Southwest Europe                                                                                      |
| 2009-2014      | CEO Fossil Division, Siemens Energy France                                                                                               |
| 2005-2009      | Policy Advisor, Ministry of Foreign Affairs                                                                                              |
| 2002-2005      | Desk Officer within Directorate General of European Affairs,Federal Chancellery                                                      |
| 2001-2002      | Advisor to the Federal Commissioner for Culture and Media                                                                                |
| 1998-2000      | Ecole Nationale d'Administration                                                                                                         |

Education

|           |                                                                                                                   |
|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2001      | Ph.D. from the Eberhard Karls University of Tübingen                                                              |
| 1996-1998 | Second State Examination in Lawat the Berlin Higher Regional Court                                            |
| 1988-1995 | Master of Arts (M.A.) and First State Examination in Law,University of Bonn and Université Paris-IV, Sorbonne |

Dr. Andreas Görgen
Chief Operating Officer (COO)

Membership

Board member at the Museum of West African Art, Benin City, Nigeria
Member of the Council for European Public Space
Member of the German-UAE Business Council
Member of the German Friends of Yad Vashem e.V.